4. Liaising with Other Committees

The Committee discussed sending members as liaisons to other committees. It was noted that the Children, Youth and Families Advisory Committee (CYFAC) would like an official liaison from the Urban Aboriginal Peoples' Advisory Committee. Co-Chair Eastman agreed to confirm this with the Co-Chairs of CYFAC.

Members also discussed which other Committee meetings they would like to attend.

5. Liaison Updates

a. Parks and Recreation

jil weaving, Vancouver Parks and Recreation, provided an update on the status of the Survivor's Pole, noting that the Park Board is being approached to raise the pole in Pigeon Park.

In discussion, members noted they would like to be more involved with the raising ceremony, gifting and potlatching. Members also discussed sending a letter of encouragement to the artist carving the pole.

MOVED by Penny Kerrigan
SECONDED by David Wells

WHEREAS

1. The Downtown Eastside is a gathering space for Urban Aboriginal Peoples;
2. Although the Downtown Eastside has a history of violence, trauma, racism and injustice, it is also a place of community, celebration, and life;
3. The Survivor's Pole is a visible representation of reconciliation and healing
4. The Survivor's Pole symbolizes resistance, persistence and inclusion in the Downtown Eastside.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Urban Aboriginal Peoples' Advisory Committee support the raising of the Survivor's Pole in Pigeon Park.
